Description

At the crossroads of business, culture and urban life, Kirchberg is one of Luxembourg's most dynamic districts. Home to major international companies, financial institutions and European institutions, it is a place where global influence meets everyday convenience.

Along John Fitzgerald Kennedy Avenue, major banks and leading professional firms such as Natixis, KPMG and Arendt have established their headquarters. Media Bay is also home to major institutions, including RTL Group and the European Investment Bank (EIB), further reinforcing Kirchberg's international profile.

Beyond its impressive architecture and business activity, Kirchberg offers an inspiring lifestyle. The Philharmonie, Mudam, La Coque, Kinépolis and Luxexpo bring culture, sport and entertainment to the doorstep, while shops, restaurants, schools and residential eighbourhoods make the area lively throughout the day.

And with the tram, extensive bus network, cycling paths, major motorways and Luxembourg Airport just minutes away, getting around couldn't be easier.

Connected, vibrant and constantly evolving, Kirchberg offers the perfect setting to work, live and experience Luxembourg...
